Washington D.C. – On Thursday, January 15th, Congressman McCarthy will help lead an economic recovery hearing to find solutions to revitalize America's economy. In response to President-elect Obama's request for input, Congressman McCarthy was selected to be a leader on the Republican Economic Stimulus Working Group, led by his colleague Republican Whip Eric Cantor (R-VA), to develop new economic stimulus ideas.

The hearing is designed to be a forum for top national experts and leaders to offer solutions to help revitalize our economy. Below are details of the working group hearing:

WHO:

Members of the Economic Stimulus Working Group
Governor Mitt Romney
Other Economic Experts

WHAT:

Economic Recovery Solutions Hearing

WHEN:

Thursday, January 15, 2009
10:00 AM EST (7:00 AM PST)

WHERE:

House Budget Committee Hearing Room
Cannon House Office Building, Room 210