TRANSCRIPT:

Well as you heard from the Speaker and the Leader, we just got out of our conference and we listened to a lot of members that talked about what they heard back in their district. One thing that we all know is the greatest creator of jobs in America is small business. Tonight, I'll be listening very intently, because I want to see what empowers entrepreneurs. It is the strength of America. You know when I was 20 years old, I started my first business. I think about the uncertainty today of how many others would take that same risk today. So we're looking at places where we can work with this President to empower the entrepreneur, to get America working again.
